While most metro Detroiters know that big brands such as Faygo, Better Made, Jiffy, and Kellogg's are made in Michigan, there are tons of great foodie finds to discover all throughout metro Detroit. Check out a few of our favorite treats and eats – and look for them in local grocery stores and farmers markets or shop them online.

Meat the Crunch!, Oak Park

If you are hungry for something new to put on your charcuterie board, look no further than Meat the Crunch!, the original salami chip. This "mouthful of moxy" was created by two innovative caterers who have kept clients fascinated with their clever food design for more than 20 years. This crispy chip is great straight out of the bag, with dips, on salads, or paired with Grey & Gus jams!
